

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF INNOCENT CHILDREN VICTIMS OF AGGRESSION

Know about the history and significance of the International Day Of Innocent Children Victims Of Aggression on 2021 which is observed on 4th June every year. It is celebrated on 4th June annually to highlight the pain suffered by children across the world who are the victims of physical, mental and emotional abuse. The day affirms the commitment of the UN to protect the right of children. The day celebrates the millions of individuals and organizations working to protect and preserve the rights of children. For example, The Global Movement For Children Leadership from Nelson Mandela etc. Another campaign namely the 'Say Yes for Children' is endorsed by more than 94 million people. The campaign calls for ten positive actions to be taken to improve the lives of children. It is sad reality that in some situations children are affected and violations that occur may be used of children in war, killing, sexual violence, abduction, attacks on school etc. This day wants to make people aware in the whole world about the impact of cruelty or abuse was done with children in all its forms.

Also to protect children's rights this day make organizations and individuals learn and take part in the campaign.

CDT BISHAL SARDAR
WB19SDF116815