

IMPORTANT
NOTES

Tree Plantation.

A tree is the best friend of man on earth as it is the greatest source of many things on earth such as Oxygen, wood, fruits and absorb harmful gases. They are the lungs of earth. And not just that they prevent soil erosion, prevent land slide and are natural habitat of animals and birds.

When we plant a tree, we are actually providing a lot of lives with their basic needs to survive.