

Bharat Ratna

The Bharat Ratna is the highest civilian award of the Republic of India. Instituted on 2 January 1954, the award is conferred in recognition of "exceptional service/performance of the highest order," without distinction of race, occupation, position, or sex. [2][3][4]

The award was originally limited to achievements in the arts, literature, science, and criteria to include "any field of human endeavour" in December 2011. [5] The recommendations for the Bharat Ratna are made by the prime minister to the president, with a maximum of three nominees being awarded per year. Bharat Ratna recipients rank seventh in the Indian order of precedence.
