

ARTICLE

Name :- Sanvi. S. Gowda

Regimental No :-

School : K.V. Mysuru

MYSORE DASARA

Mysuru Dasara is festival where we celebrate Goddess Chamundashwari. Dasara is not only celebrated in Mysuru, it is celebrated in parts of our country, it is celebrated in Bengal, Gujarat and etc. Dasara is a festival where it is celebrated for 9 days, which is Navaratri and the last day which Dasara.

Mysuru Dasara is very auspicious, marvellous festival. The whole Mysuru will be filled with joy, happiness and to see explore new Mysuru.

During Dasara Mysuru is filled with lightings, people coming from different cities to enjoy the vibe, many meals, feasts, exhibitions, programmes will be performed in these days. Especially, Mysuru Palace will shining like gold with thousands of golden lights. This festival is mainly oriented on Royal family of the city. Royal family will be performing "Darbars" [Kings Court] on these days. For the day of Dasara elephants will be brought from our state forests which are specially meant for these day and taken care by forest Department of Karnataka, they will be brought to the before 3week to get them adjusted to the place. The Dasara festival will also called as Dashami on that day in golden Ambari goddess Chamundashwari idol will be kept and taken for Savari through main streets. On this day many rituals, traditions, will be performed and will be headed by Royal family. From past few years Dasara will also be celebrated in Srirangapatana which is near by Mysuru. It is also called mini - Dasara Dasara is festival where we can enjoy our 10 days to life